

EDUCATION

HARVARD LAW SCHOOL
Juris Doctorate
cum laude

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA
M.A., Public Policy
honors

CARNEGIE MELLON UNIVERSITY
B.A., International Studies
Honors

EXPERIENCE

GREENBERG TRAURIG • American Indian Law Practice Group 2014–present
Indian Law & Agribusiness Practice Group Attorney Washington, DC/ Rapid City, SD
Focus on Federal Indian law, economic development, policy, and advocacy. Advocacy work includes state, local, tribal and federal advocacy with both legislative and executive branches, as well as public and community outreach. Tribal economic development work includes multiple industries with a specialization in rural economic development, tribal agriculture, tribal hemp, Farm Bill, finance, tribal corporate structuring (tribal corporations and Section 17s), tribal and federal tax and finance policy, tribal business codes, and deal structuring. Run the TeCC National Tribal Hemp Working Group and active team member Native Farm Bill Coalition. Tribal nation building work includes language revitalization, constitutions, codes, and courts. Work with tribes, tribal corporations, intertribal associations and corporations seeking to do business with tribal nations.

UNITED TRIBES TECHNICAL COLLEGE/UNITED TRIBES OF NORTH DAKOTA 2014–2018
Professor • Legal Counsel Bismarck, ND/Rapid City, SD
UTTC is an urban tribal college with a board consisting of the tribal Chairmen of all five of the tribes located in North Dakota. Taught Federal Indian Law and Crime Scene Investigations. Served as in-house counsel on policy and rural tribal economic development projects, and as counsel to the United Tribes of North Dakota and the United Tribes of North Dakota – Development Corporation.

US ATTORNEY'S OFFICE SOUTH DAKOTA • Indian Country Section 2011–2014
Assistant United States Attorney Pine Ridge/Rapid City, SD
Indian Country Federal Prosecutor on the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation. Covered felony crimes emanating from Pine Ridge, with a special focus on violent crimes and violence against women and children. First ever Indian Country Community Prosecution Pilot Program, working directly with the Oglala Sioux Tribe and the community on the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation. Focus on practical implementation of a variety of federal policies.

DENTONS (SONNENSCHN, NATH & ROSENTHAL LLP) 2009–2011
Partner Washington, DC
One of approximately five Native American partners at the time at an “AmLaw 100” law firm. Lead of Sonnenschein’s Indian law public policy team. Scope included state and federal advocacy, rural economic development, tribal agriculture, finance, and homeland security/law enforcement. Clients included Tribal governments and Tribal corporations.

NATIONAL CONGRESS OF AMERICAN INDIANS (NCAI) 2006–2009
Director of Government Affairs Washington, DC
The National Congress of American Indians (NCAI) is the oldest and largest body representing American Indian Tribal governments. Managed the entire legislative staff and coordinated education and outreach to Congress and the Executive Branch. Special focus on tribal tax, finance, tribal agriculture, rural economic development, tribal sovereignty and jurisdiction, state-tribal relations, law enforcement, tribal courts, and homeland security. Ran NCAI’s team to reauthorize the Farm Bill, Indian Health Care bill, the Tribal Law and Order Act, ARRA, and Native Vote Election Protection.

UNITED STATES SENATE • DEMOCRATIC POLICY COMMITTEE 2004–2005
Counsel/Policy Advisor • Judiciary and Indian Affairs Washington, DC
Provided policy advice and counsel to DPC and home state Senators from South and North Dakota. Indian Affairs issues included rural economic development, agriculture, energy, sovereignty, judicial reform, and criminal and civil jurisdiction.

HEATHER DAWN THOMPSON

PATTON BOGGS LLP

Associate

2001-2004

Washington, DC

Developed and implemented legislative and legal strategies, particularly on Native American affairs and Middle Eastern issues. Team lead on comprehensive foreign country representation for the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. Worked on all aspects of litigation development for complex cases. Conducted first litigation testing DC's new landlord tenant law regarding receiverships.

CHEYENNE RIVER SIOUX TRIBE • Attorney General's Office

In-House Law Clerk

Summer 2000

Eagle Butte, SD

Provided legal assistance in all areas of federal Indian and Tribal law and policy. Extensive research regarding Federal and Tribal civil and criminal jurisdiction.

US DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE • Immigration and Naturalization Service

Policy Analyst • Presidential Management Fellow

1995-1997

Washington, DC

Primary agency policy analyst on national and international immigration law enforcement issues, including: border control, international alien and narcotics smuggling, and counter-terrorism. Shaped design and implementation of the National Border Patrol Strategy and National Anti-Smuggling Strategy.

THE PUYALLUP TRIBE • Puyallup Tribal Court

Interim Tribal Prosecutor

Summer 1992

Puyallup, WA

Served as the interim Prosecutor for the Puyallup Tribe of Indians. Prosecuted all violations of Tribal laws and regulations in Tribal court. Served as liaison for federal, state, and Tribal officials.

SAMPLE LEADERSHIP POSITIONS

RAPID CITY INDIAN BOARDING SCHOOL GRAVES/LANDS/LAND INTO TRUST

Founder/Lead Legal Researcher

2014-present

Rapid City, SD

Identified lands where unmarked graves of the children who passed away at the RC Indian Boarding School passed away. Obtained lands and got placed into trust for Lakota tribal nations to protect the graves. Identified additional land irregularities and launched state-wide education campaign. www.facebook.com/SiouxSanLands/ www.RememberingTheChildren.org

BUSH FELLOWSHIP

Fellow

2017-2019

Rapid City, SD

Recipient of competitive two-year Bush Fellowship. Fellowship focused on tribal self-sufficiency, particularly through integration of modern economic tribal development with traditional values, such as indigenous agriculture, renewable energy, etc.

DAKOTA PLAINS LEGAL SERVICES

Board Member

2011-2018

Rapid City, SD

The South Dakota Indian Country Bar Association will provide a forum for all Native lawyers and lawyers who work in Indian Country in South Dakota, supporting tribal sovereignty and promoting education about tribal courts, and tribal and federal Indian law.

CITY OF RAPID CITY PARKS & RECREATION BOARD

Board member

2012-2014

Rapid City, SD

Appointed by Mayor of Rapid City to the Parks & Recreation Board during a time of significant racial tension in the City to assist in bridging the gap between the urban Native community and the many important city issues of relevance.

SOUTH DAKOTA INDIAN COUNTRY BAR ASSOCIATION

Co-Founder/President

2011-present

Rapid City, SD

The South Dakota Indian Country Bar Association will provide a forum for all Native lawyers and lawyers who work in Indian Country in South Dakota, supporting tribal sovereignty and promoting education about tribal courts, and tribal and federal Indian law.

HEATHER DAWN THOMPSON

NATIONAL NATIVE AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION (NNABA)

2007-2009

President

Washington, DC

NNABA is the national association for Native American attorneys and attorneys who practice Indian law. NNABA works actively on legal and policy issues affecting Native communities, both nationally and within the international indigenous legal community. Responsibilities included speaking engagements, bar ethics, coordination of nominations for judicial appointments.

FEDERAL BAR ASSOCIATION-INDIAN LAW SECTION

2006-2008

Deputy Chair

Washington, DC

The Federal Bar Association is the national association for attorneys with federal law practices. The Indian Law Section is one of the largest sections of the Federal Bar and represents a very large portion of practitioners in the Indian law field.

LAKOTA LANGUAGE IMMERSION PRESCHOOL CLASSROOM (AT THE BANANA BUNCH)

2013-present

Founder

Rapid City, SD

Founded a Lakota language preschool classroom in Rapid City. Many immersion programs are struggling with funding, and none of the existing programs are easily accessible to Lakota families living in Rapid City. This program is designed to be self-sustaining. It is a Lakota language speaking preschool classroom within a pre-existing, well-established day care center.

CHEYENNE RIVER YOUTH PROJECT (CRYP)

2001-present

Advisory Board Member

Eagle Butte, SD

CRYP is a youth center that provides after school education, art, and physical programming for children on the Cheyenne River Sioux Reservation. Raised funds to build the new teen center.

NATIVE AMERICAN FEDERAL JUDICIAL NOMINATION COMMITTEE

2009-2011

Member

Washington, DC

The federal courts have unique and unparalleled decision-making authority over Indian Country, yet there are no Native Americans on the federal judiciary. The Judicial Nomination Committee is an informal joint project to encourage, vet, and promote Native Americans for federal judicial appointments.

TRIBAL PARTNERSHIP PROGRAM

2004-2010

Creator/Program Manager

Washington, DC

The TPP is designed to bring much needed pro bono legal resources to Indian Country by matching individual Tribes and Native nonprofit organizations with large national law firms. The goal of the TPP is to fundamentally reshape the legal, economic development, and business resources available in Indian Country.

DC NATIVE AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION (NABA- DC)

2002-2004

President

Washington, DC

NABA DC is one of the largest chapters of Native American attorneys in the United States. One of the primary missions of my presidency was to help direct national, international, and legal resources to Native communities.

NATIVEVOTE 2008 • 2006 • 2004 • Election Protection/Voting Rights Project

2004-present

Creator/National Coordinator

Washington, DC

Created and ran national non-partisan program designed to address systemic legal issues hindering Native voters, and Native American indigenous voting rights. Program is active in fifteen states with large indigenous populations, within the Reservation and urban Indian communities. We train and deploy nearly 500 legal and grass-roots volunteers to serve as voter advocates on Election Day. Participate in extensive radio, newsprint, and television engagements to publicize voting rights protections.

SAMPLE PUBLICATIONS

- “An Inconvenient Truth: The History Behind the Rapid City Indian Boarding School and West Rapid City Lands.”
By Heather Dawn Thompson (May 2017) <https://www.moarapidcity.org/essays-perspectives/>,
<https://www.facebook.com/SiouxSanLands/>
- “Doing Business with Tribal Owned Corporations: Competitive Advantages,” by Heather Dawn Thompson, Tribal Business Journal, (March 2016)
- “Modern Realities of the ‘Jurisdictional Maze’ in Indian Country,” by Heather Dawn Thompson and Elizabeth Kronk,
The Federal Lawyer, 54 Federal Lawyer 48 (March/April 2007)
http://papers.ssrn.com/sol3/papers.cfm?abstract_id=2167430

SAMPLE PUBLIC SPEAKING

- “Surviving an Invasion & Understanding Your Neighbors,” Heather Dawn Thompson, TEDx Talk (July 2018)
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ZOuZ_f7EN6k
- “Enabling Investments in Indian Country,” Heather Dawn Thompson, SoCap Conference, (October 2018)
<https://youtu.be/UZOOq3QgDkw>
- “An Inconvenient Truth: The History Behind the Rapid City Indian Boarding School and West Rapid City Lands,” Oyate Today Interview, (January 2019) <https://youtu.be/e3ar7rmBz3E>
- “Hidden America: Children of the Plains,” Narrator, 20/20 ABC Special with Diane Sawyer, (October 2011), <http://abcnews.go.com/blogs/headlines/2011/10/diane-sawyer-reporting-a-hidden-america-children-of-the-plains-on-friday-october-14/>

SAMPLE COVERAGE

- “A Man of Healing, A Saga of Suffering: Allegations of Child Sex Abuse are Complicated by Legal Maze in Indian County,” by Sari Horowitz, The Washington Post (December 28, 2014)
<http://www.washingtonpost.com/sf/national/2014/12/28/a-man-of-healing-a-saga-of-suffering/>
- “Federal Panel Reviewing Native American Sentencing,” By Dan Frosch, The Wall Street Journal (April 21, 2015)
<http://www.wsj.com/articles/federal-panel-reviewing-native-american-sentencing-1429608601>

SAMPLE TEACHING & LECTURES

- Guest lectures include: Harvard Kennedy School of Government, UCLA School of Law, George Washington University, American University, Black Hills State University, University of South Dakota.
- Federal Indian Law, Professor, United Tribes Technical College •
 - Rural Tribal Economic Development, Presenter, Greenberg Traurig •
 - Crime Scene Investigations, Professor, United Tribes Technical College •
 - Separation of Politics & Economic Development, Reservation Economic Summit (RES) •
 - Intensive Tribal Court Trial Advocacy Training, Instructor, BIA Tribal Courts Program •
 - Advanced Federal Advocacy Training for Tribal Leaders, National Congress of American Indians (NCAI) •
 - Criminal Jurisdiction in Indian Country, Society of American Indian Government Employees (SAIGE) •
 - How Governments Can Promote Tribal Economies, Reservation Economic Summit (RES) •
 - Ethics for Indian Law Practitioners, Federal Bar Association •

RELEVANT INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE

- Saudi Arabia • The Philippines • The Netherlands • United Arab Emirates • Ecuador •

BAR MEMBERSHIPS

- Alaska • Colorado • District of Columbia • North Dakota (temporary) • South Dakota • Virginia •
• Cheyenne River Sioux Tribe (SD) • Oglala Sioux Tribe (SD) • Puyallup Tribe of Indians (WA) •

CITIZENSHIPS

- United States • Cheyenne River Sioux (Mnicoujou) •